

Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Washington, D.C.

Inspiring Hope. Building Futures.

WHO WE ARE

For more than 90 years, Catholic Charities DC has been answering the call to help those who are less fortunate in the D.C. metro area. As the most comprehensive provider of human services, we are committed to providing essential services to those who are poor, immigrant newcomers and individuals with mental and developmental disabilities.

WHO WE SERVE

We help those living in poverty, immigrants, victims of human trafficking, abuse and violence, those without homes, the sick, the uninsured, and individuals living with disabilities. We help anyone regardless of their race, religion, sexual orientation or citizenship status.

OUR PROGRAMS

With 52 programs in 32 locations, Catholic Charities DC offers access to lower-cost medical and dental care, food and nutrition assistance, counseling and housing assistance, and legal services.

@CCADW

OUR SERVICES

More than 167,000 people in Washington, D.C., and the suburban Maryland counties of Montgomery, Prince George's, Calvert, Charles and St. Mary's are served by eight program areas:

- Care for Families and Children
- Developmental Disabilities Services
- Empowerment for Individuals
- Food Services
- Health Care and Mental Health Services
- Housing and Shelter
- Immigrant and Refugee Services
- Job Training and Employment Services

OUR COMMITMENT

Catholic Charities is committed to helping those in need, especially those who are most vulnerable. Our work is strengthened through partnerships with other providers, government agencies, foundations, businesses, individuals, schools and churches. We are very grateful for the support of donors and volunteers, who help us meet the current and future needs of the community.

IN OUR CLIENTS' WORDS

"I genuinely do thank God for this program, which has provided my child and me a home — a permanent home where we both can grow and feel safe after living in a shelter." ... "I wouldn't have my job without the help I receive from my employment specialist." ... "I am working. I am focused. I am thankful for the Welcome Home program for truly understanding my needs." ... "After having absolutely nowhere to turn, the Legal Network was there to help me. I am back on my feet and am eternally grateful to Catholic Charities."

OUR IMPACT

In the past year,

- 2.9 million meals were served to the hungry and food insecure
- 2,259 clients received employment assistance and job training
- 7,301 people received dental and medical care
- 94 women were given pregnancy support
- 1,603 low-income adults received pro bono civil legal services
- 890 adults and children received behavioral health support

