Walk with Francis

ANNUAL REPORT 2014-2015

Catholic Charities
ARCHDIOCESE OF WASHINGTON

“CHARITY is born of the call of a God who continues to knock on our door, the door of all people, to invite us to love, to compassion, to service of one another. — Pope Francis, St. Patrick’s Parish

Dear Friends,

It is a pleasure to present to you this annual report for Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Washington which highlights the efforts of this ministry to walk with Pope Francis in faith and charity on our pilgrim journey. The stories found in this report remind all of us that through the love we share, the Gospel faith still has the power to transform people's lives.

When our Holy Father met with some of the clients, staff and volunteers of Catholic Charities during his visit to Washington this year, he stressed that "Jesus wanted to show solidarity with every person. He wanted everyone to experience his companionship, his help, his love." Thanks to your compassionate support, through Catholic Charities, our sisters and brothers in need are able to encounter that consolation and love of Christ every day.

As a visible sign of Christ's presence in the world today, this faith-filled ministry meets a myriad of material and spiritual needs in its 65 programs, including: housing, job training, legal aid, immigration and refugee assistance, mental health treatment, medical and dental care, life-long care for those with developmental disabilities, and food assistance, such as Saint Maria's Meals, which served the lunch that was blessed during Pope Francis' visit. In the past year alone, Catholic Charities brought hope and healing to more than 123,000 men, women and children, making a profound difference in their lives.

My hope is that as you go through this annual report, you will recognize these accomplishments as the fruit of your own generosity, for which I am personally grateful. In a particular way, I would also like to thank President and CEO Monsignor John Enzler and the committed staff and volunteers of Catholic Charities for their service in being the merciful face of the Lord to others.

Asking God's blessings on you and all those served by Catholic Charities, I am

Faithfully in Christ,

Archbishop of Washington

A “FIELD HOSPITAL” FOR ANYONE IN NEED

We reached more than 123,000 people in the DC and Maryland region last year alone.

OUR SERVICES

Last year, we worked with 123,391 men, women, and children. As you can see, some of those services came in highly intensive, long-term care with a smaller number of people, like our work with adults and children living with developmental disabilities or our care of teenagers and children living on their own. Other programs, such as our Southern Maryland Food Bank and shelters, see a high number of people. We try our best to get an accurate picture of how many individual people we serve—sometimes it can be challenging as many of our clients receive multiple services from multiple programs or are served repeatedly throughout the year.

HIGHLIGHTS

- 8,418 people volunteered with us last year.
- 4.4 million meals were served last year across all of our programs.
- Doctors and lawyers donated their professional services to our programs, providing more than $14.7 million in direct services to our clients.

Made possible because...

more than 8,986 people made more than 16,352 donations to Catholic Charities just in the past year.

A HEALING KISS

“THE CHANCE
to meet the pope is a gift from God.”

— Maria Diaz

Maria Diaz clutched the photo of her nephew, seven-year-old Gabriel, who has autism as she anxiously watched Pope Francis slowly walk down the aisle at St. Patrick’s, stopping to greet people as he passed. She was seated near the front. All she wanted was for the pope to bless the photo and her nephew.

She had no thought about her cancer and the pain it caused her body as she stood. She had survived it for more than three years, despite an initial diagnosis giving her only six months to live. Maria had first come to Catholic Charities for dental care. Her teeth were breaking, a bad side effect from the radiation treatments she needed to battle the cancer in her breast, lungs, and spinal column. She received restorative work on her teeth over many visits, finding a home in the dental office.

Then she was invited to meet the pope. Immediately, she thought of her nephew. She had convinced her sister to move from El Salvador when she had her special needs son. Before God, Maria had promised to help care for him. Her illness had only brought her closer to her nephew, as he had visited her every day in the hospital.

As Pope Francis drew near, she reached out and put the photo in his hand. He blessed the photo and tucked it away in his robe. He handed her a rosary. And then he kissed her bald head. It was a photo that would circulate around the world that night on the news. For Maria, it was a life changing moment.

“All of the pain in me disappeared,” she said, noting she no longer uses crutches or a wheelchair. “I can now work in the garden. I am happy. I have energy again. I have suffered so much. The chance to meet the pope is a gift from God.”

“In the face of unjust and painful situations, FAITH brings us the light which scatters the darkness.”

— Pope Francis, St. Patrick's Parish

Be it long-term care for chronic disease such as cancer or mental illness, or routine dental care or the need of a well-versed attorney in civil law, our team is ready to help.

Our Behavioral Health Services Program is one of the highest rated in the city, walking a journey through good and bad with low-income people who live with mental illness. Our Immigration Legal Services team helps people from across the world who have fled their homes. ## DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

“Let us TREAT OTHERS with the same passion and compassion with which we want to be treated. Let us seek for others the same possibilities which we seek for ourselves. Let us help others to grow, as we would like to be helped ourselves.”

— Pope Francis, US Congress Speech

THE KENNEDY SCHOOL INCLUDING PROJECT SEARCH & AN INCLUSION SITE • SUPPORTED EMPLOYMENT DAY PROGRAMS FOR ADULTS & CHILDREN • CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER & PRE-KINDERGARTEN DEDICATED SERVICE COORDINATION FOR YOUNG CHILDREN & THEIR FAMILIES • COMMUNITY LIVING

During his visit in Philadelphia, there was a stunning moment where Pope Francis stopped his car to greet and bless a child with cerebral palsy who was with his parents. It was an eye-catching moment witnessed instantly around the globe, emphasizing dignity and respect of all people. This is the spirit behind our work with adults and children living with a disability. We know our clients with disabilities are determined and with supports are able to achieve their goals in life. From birth through adulthood, we offer opportunities so each person and their families may obtain the joys of friendship, employment and education.

In collaboration from families, our Child Development Center promotes social skills and early learning concepts for newborns, infants, and toddlers. Our specialized Kennedy School teaches students with disabilities life, vocational, and social skills. In addition, these students continue to learn the core curriculum. Supported employment, community living, and other programs all help our participants contribute to their communities while encouraging them to be productive citizens.

A participant in Community Living has sustained her job for 34 years with a collective effort of her Community Living Support Team.

Our program supported 15 adolescent participants as they transitioned from our programs to employment, further education, and adulthood.

Our supported employment program in Maryland helped five participants become gainfully employed through the Federal Government.

LOOKING FORWARD FROM HOMELESSNESS

In May, Sherri came to southern Maryland hoping to reunite with family. She was staying in a motel while desperate to find a home for herself and her one-month-old daughter, Rebecca. She was quickly sent to Angel's Watch, our shelter for women and their children who are homeless and/or fleeing domestic violence. Sherri and Rebecca were fleeing both.

Less than six months later, Sherri was standing in front of Pope Francis. The Holy Father walked right up to Sherri, gently touched her hand, and kissed Rebecca, who was dressed in a beautiful white dress. "It was honestly the most amazing experience," Sherri said. "To have a blessing come from such an influential and loving leader, I don't even know what to say."

Sherri moved to southern Maryland to reunite with her two sons, who had been living with Sherri's mother after Sherri realized she couldn't provide a stable home. Since coming to Angel's Watch, Sherri has found a new path and hope that she can live independently and reunite her family. She's beginning training as a certified nurse's assistant to become a registered nurse. She was inspired after caring for her aunt, who passed away from breast cancer. In all of her plans, however, never did she figure Pope Francis would be in her future.

"He looked directly at me and smiled," Sherri said. "I felt filled with light."

"IT WAS HONESTLY
the most amazing experience. To have a blessing come from such an influential and loving leader..."

— Sherri

“CHILDREN, whether young or older, they are the future, the strength that moves us forward. We place our hope in them.” — Pope Francis, Festival of Families Speech

HOMELESS & HOUSING SERVICES

“THE SON OF GOD came into this world as a homeless person. The Son of God knew what it was to start life without a roof over his head.”

— Pope Francis, St. Patrick's Parish

SIX LOW BARRIER SHELTERS • NINE TRANSITIONAL HOUSING PROGRAMS • THREE SINGLE ROOM OCCUPANCY SITES
SEVEN PERMANENT SUPPORTIVE HOUSING PROGRAMS

During his stop at Catholic Charities, Pope Francis said, “We can find no social or moral justification, no justification whatsoever, for lack of housing.” We run 25 programs focused on ending homelessness. Our low-barrier shelters offer a bed, a hot meal, a shower, and access to a case worker every night of the year—but this program is best for those in crisis. Many more of our programs are smaller and offer residents their own rooms or apartments, with case managers who help address the underlying causes of homelessness: unemployment, addiction, health issues, domestic violence, behavioral health, and more.

We had 1,785 men, women, and children staying in our smaller, long-term housing programs, where they worked closely with a social worker and other staff to address their biggest needs in breaking the cycle of homelessness.

We helped 1,151 men, women and families transition into longer-term housing situations to establish stability and work towards independence.

Last year was one of the toughest hypothermia seasons recorded in Washington, DC. We served 3,936 men, women and children in our hypothermia shelters during the coldest nights.

The challenge posed by homelessness to our community does not have a simple solution, but providing a warm and safe place off of the streets is an important first step. When given an opportunity, our clients bring incredible hard work and faith to help themselves overcome homelessness.

FAMILY,
PARISH, &
COMMUNITY OUTREACH

“CLOSENESS to the poor, the refugee, the immigrant, the sick, the exploited, the elderly living alone, prisoners and all God’s other poor, will teach us a different way of resting, one which is more Christian and generous.”

— Pope Francis, St. Patrick’s Cathedral, NYC

Our Welcome Home Re-Entry Program worked closely with 271 men and women who returned from serving their time in prison and are working hard to start anew in the community.

Together our family centers and Parish Partners program assisted 25,095 individuals with emergency financial assistance, budget training, clothes and food, and referrals to help them overcome a crisis in their home.

Our second annual archdiocese-wide coat drive helped us provide 4,676 coats last winter!

Behind the many needs we try to meet is a common truth: all people have inherent dignity. The programs of our Family, Parish, and Community Outreach Department bring together volunteers, staff, and clients to work together, and be reminded of our common relationship as brothers and sisters. Mentors in our Welcome Home Re-Entry Program walk with returning citizens in their day-to-day lives.

Our Family Centers serve often as a first responder to families in crisis, meeting both short-term needs with rental assistance, but also providing a safe place to share their story. Our work with local parishes is creating a broad, community-based network of support, thanks to the faithful volunteerism of Catholic parishioners, priests, and schools.

“I’m glad he’s interested in coming into the community. He’s the PEOPLE’S POPE.”

— Trenton Shepherd

ALL IN A DAY’S WORK

The day Trenton Shepherd met Pope Francis, he wore his best suit, a tie and shirt to match, and his best shoes. “I wanted to dress for the occasion,” Trenton said. “I prayed I’d have the chance to meet the pope.” Trenton is a longtime consumer and employee of Catholic Charities’ Behavioral Health Services. Ten years ago, Trenton couldn’t live on his own or hold a job.

Today, he works for our Catholic Charities Enterprises, cleaning the kitchen and dining room after more than 1,800 meals are prepared. The work, his case manager Joseph Chaney says, has brought about a lot of positive changes in Trenton. He lives on his own now, does his own shopping and schedules his own doctor’s appointments. And, every Sunday, he heads to his Catholic parish to worship, always dressed in his best clothing. “He came back from meeting the pope and gave me the biggest hug,” Chaney said. “That’s just who he is.”

Chef Eric Curry has worked with Trenton for more than 10 years. “He’s Mr. Very, Very, Very Reliable,” said Curry. In addition to his great work ethic, Trenton is known for his friendliness, greeting coworkers, and always saying goodbye before he heads home. For the staff who work with him, seeing Trenton with Pope Francis was a joy they shared with him.

Trenton, always humble, said, “It was pretty good. I’m glad he’s interested in coming into the community. He’s the people’s pope.” He pauses and nods to himself. “Yeah, it was pretty good.”

“For HOW WE WORK expresses our dignity and the kind of persons we are.”
— Pope Francis, United Nations

ENTERPRISES,
EDUCATION, & EMPLOYMENT

“JESUS keeps knocking on our door in the faces of our brothers and sisters, in the faces of our neighbors, in the faces of those at our side.”

— Pope Francis, St. Patrick's Parish

SOUTHERN MARYLAND FOOD BANK • EMPLOYMENT READINESS EDUCATION & TRAINING
PRE-APPRENTICESHIP GREEN CONSTRUCTION TRAINING PROGRAM

Give someone a fish and you feed them for a day. Teach them to fish and you feed them for a lifetime. This age old adage comes to life by our Enterprises, Education, & Employment Department, a collection of programs combining a need to fight community-wide hunger with employment training and opportunity. Across the region, our four main food programs are providing meals and affordable groceries to thousands of families, individuals, and homebound seniors who face the daunting reality of hunger otherwise.

Our employment programs help make people ready to start a good job. Throughout all of our workforce development programs, men and women learn job and interpersonal skills needed to become successful employees. Even after they've completed a training course, our wraparound services and mentoring opportunities provide support as they integrate into the workforce.

The Southern Maryland Food Bank distributed 1,088,709 pounds of food which was then distributed to local soup kitchens, food pantries and shelters.

Our employment programs helped 693 people get started in a new job!

Our St. Maria's Meals Program, visited by Pope Francis, provided 15,097 meals. The program has expanded to serve meals in three different locations in our region.

WALK WITH FRANCIS . . .

What do you give as a gift to Pope Francis? The gift of community, prayer, and social justice, of course!

The WalkWithFrancis.org site was launched on July 22, inviting our community to pledge to pray/learn, serve, or act in whatever way they wanted to help improve the community. We asked each participant to share their pledge on social media and invite others to join them.

The final result was breathtaking, as more than 109,000 people took the pledge. We were honored to present the Holy Father with a special book detailing the names and social media posts of pledge takers.

I WILL NEVER FORGET THE VISIT OF POPE FRANCIS

to Catholic Charities. I was truly blessed to witness the once-in-a-lifetime visit up close as the Holy Father greeted 500 of our clients in St. Patrick's Parish and outside on G Street with joyful smiles and open arms. And, as he smiled in front of a room full of teary-eyed people, he finished by saying, "And, please, don't forget to pray for me."

This was a tremendous moment for Catholic Charities. The pope's visit shined a light on the many severe needs we try to meet every day: homelessness, hunger, unemployment, disabilities, mental illness, poverty among immigrants, and more.

More than 109,000 people have been inspired to make their community better through the Walk with Francis Pledge. Inspired by his example, we're seeing many new volunteers and donors join our work. And of course, we will never forget some of the powerful moments of his visit: the tender kiss to the forehead of a woman battling cancer; the blessing to a man who has worked to overcome disability; and the blessing of a baby born to a homeless mother, among others.

And to me, that's what is so special. Much of what Pope Francis has done in his ministry is to make it easy for us to picture what Jesus must have been like. He saw the person before him, not a problem society had to fix. He showed us being there for each other is what defines us.

Pope Francis' visit to Catholic Charities honored and recognized in such a powerful way the work you have helped make possible for 85 years. I can only say thank you, and ask that you pray for us.
