

A Brighter Path

ANNUAL REPORT 2015–2016

*To strengthen the lives of those in need
by giving help that empowers
and hope that lasts*

Dear Friends,

It is with joy and great appreciation that I present this annual report which highlights the good works of Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Washington as together we try to live out the Gospel in our pilgrim journey.

In proclaiming the Jubilee Year of Mercy, Pope Francis said that mercy is “the fundamental law that dwells in the heart of every person who looks sincerely into the eyes of his brothers and sisters on the path of life” (Misericordiae Vultus, 2). Jesus teaches us how we are to show that mercy to others: He says in the Sermon on the Mount that we are supposed to be a shining light before others. Later, the Lord challenges us to envision a world where the hungry are fed, the thirsty are given drink, the stranger is welcomed, and the naked are clothed.

What we read in the Gospel comes alive in the work of Catholic Charities. By the accompanying presence of the men and women of this faith-filled ministry, our sisters and brothers in need find a brighter path in their life’s journey, one that is illumined by the radiance of Christ’s eternal and merciful love shining in the darkness.

As you read the stories in this report, you will find the fruits of your generous support, for which I am profoundly grateful. Through 61 programs operated by Catholic Charities, in the past year 127,000 disadvantaged women, men, and children received needed housing, food, healthcare, mental health treatment, immigration and refugee assistance, education, services for those with developmental disabilities, legal aid, and spiritual care. For making present in this way the light of hope and love in our world today, I express particular gratitude to Catholic Charities Board of Directors, President and CEO Monsignor John Enzler, and all of the staff and volunteers of Catholic Charities.

Asking God’s blessings on you and all served by Catholic Charities, with every good wish, I am

Faithfully in Christ,

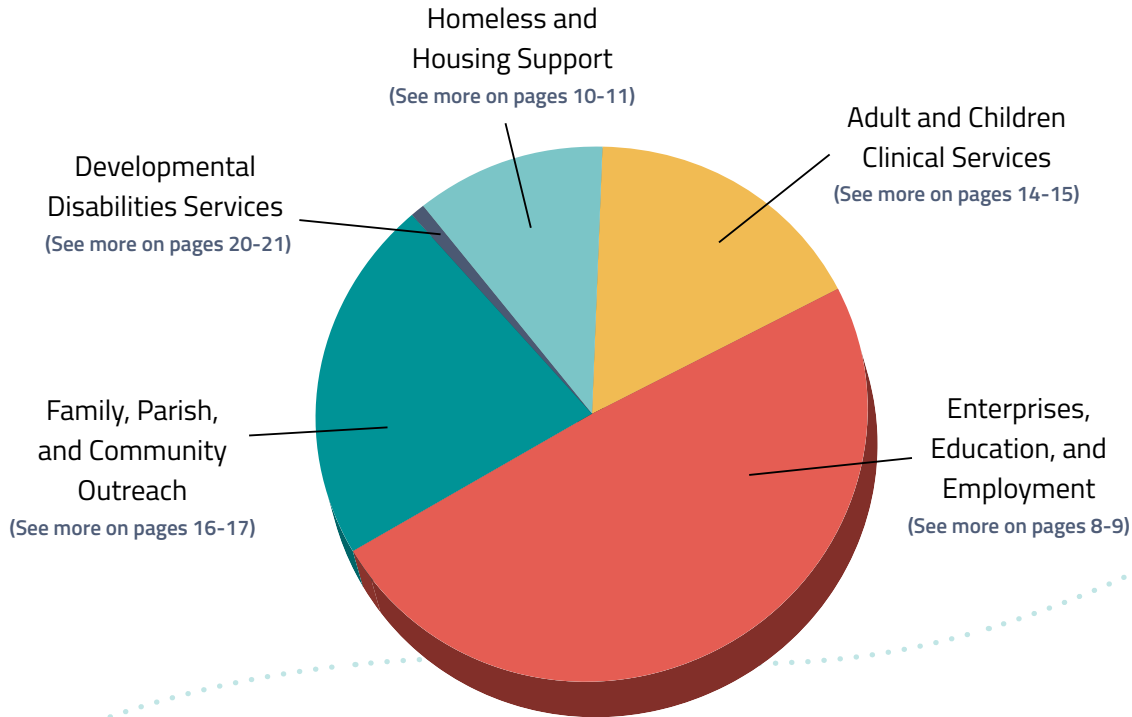

Archbishop of Washington

Paving the Way Toward a Brighter Future

We reached more than 127,000 people in the DC and Maryland region last year alone.

Highlights

- 7,452 people volunteered with us last year.
- 5 million meals were served last year across all of our programs.
- Doctors and lawyers donated their professional services to our programs, providing more than $18.4 million in direct services to our clients.

Made possible because...

More than 9,642 people made more than 18,338 donations to Catholic Charities just in the past year.

Last year, we worked with 127,289 men, women, and children. As you can see, some of those services came in highly intensive, long-term care with a smaller number of people, like our work with adults and children living with developmental disabilities or our care of teenagers and children living on their own. Other programs, such as our Southern Maryland Food Bank and shelters, see a high number of people. We do our best to capture an accurate picture of how many individual people we serve—sometimes it can be challenging as many of our clients receive multiple services from multiple programs or are served repeatedly throughout the year.

Never Too Late for a New Beginning

Before Vernon started installing siding on houses, he had never picked up a hammer. But the laborious work provided a decent income for Vernon to start saving money and provide for his family. Then came the housing market crash. Vernon lost his job and with it the steady income. Starting over from scratch at the age of 47 was daunting, but Vernon made a commitment to himself to focus on building his construction skill set beyond the basics of installing siding. "My goal was to put myself in a better position in the job market and be a valuable employee for a great company or start my own company."

One of the first steps Vernon took was to enroll in the Michael H. Kappaz Workforce Development program at our Spanish Catholic Center. The Kappaz Workforce program trains students in carpentry, electricity, solar panel installation, and job-site skills in order to compete in the emerging green economy. For Vernon, the program was much more than a job training class. "The center embraces you like family. They make you feel at home. They gave me hope that what's on the horizon is bright."

Vernon earned a nationally accredited green construction certificate through the program. The training helped him land a great job as a building manager where he puts his expanded skill set to use every day. But he hasn't stopped learning. After getting the basics during his time at Catholic Charities, he now is taking electrician courses at night and on weekends.

"It's never too late and I got a lot of hope for the future."

Enterprises, Education, and Employment

ST. MARIA'S MEALS

CATHOLIC CHARITIES ENTERPRISES

SHARE FOOD NETWORK

SOUTHERN MARYLAND FOOD BANK

MICHAEL H. KAPPAZ WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

REFUGEE CENTER

Our Enterprise, Education, and Employment programs provide both immediate help and long-term skills that help people break free of poverty. It starts with our two wide-reaching food programs. The Southern Maryland Food Bank helps supply nearly 30 local food pantries serving hungry families. The SHARE Food Network sells affordable grocery packages that cost about half of what they would at a local store, a great way for families to sustain themselves.

Our workforce development programs prepare men and women to not only land a job but to build a career of success and stability. We teach English to immigrants, new job skills, and supplement all of these classes with food, case management, and more. In the end, these programs give clients the chance to contribute back to the community.

More than just a food bank — did you know our Southern Maryland Food Bank delivers food packages to seniors or that we provide hungry kids with a backpack full of food to take home from school on the weekends?

The Michael H. Kappaz Workforce Development program helped 93 individuals develop skills to enter the competitive workforce and secure long-term employment.

The SHARE Food Network helps families save nearly 50% each month on healthy, fresh groceries.

Homeless and Housing Services

PERMANENT SUPPORTIVE HOUSING PROGRAMS

SINGLE ROOM OCCUPANCY SITES

TRANSITIONAL HOUSING PROGRAMS

LOW BARRIER SHELTERS

Homelessness is a crisis we see every day. It bears down and breaks the human spirit. We are on the front lines to address the crisis, starting with emergency low-barrier shelters and ranging to longer term housing models to help individuals and families overcome homelessness.

In total, we operate 16 programs that offer different options to help each person address their unique situation. Our low-barrier shelters are a starting point each night that welcomes in any single adult, especially in the winter when we provide an extra 250 beds when the temperature drops below freezing. Our Rapid Re-Housing Program quickly moves homeless families into their own apartment and provides ongoing case management support. And our permanent supportive housing programs understand some people will need more time to recover and regain their ability to thrive on their own.

Each night, we provide more than 1,500 beds for men, women, and children with nowhere else to go.

Our Family Re-Housing and Stabilization Program helped 26 families move into their own permanent, safe, and stable housing while paying their own rent.

We helped 495 men, women, and children through our transitional housing programs to find employment, feed their children, and take the next step to independent living.

Chasing Her American Dream with a Smile

When someone comes to our McCarrick Family Center, the first person they often meet is 19-year-old Marlene. Smiling and bubbly, she makes families feel at ease and welcomed. She knows what it is like to be in their shoes — just a few months earlier, she was the one walking through the door.

At the age of 17, Marlene and her younger sister fled gang violence in El Salvador that threatened their lives. Their mother had been living in the United States for nearly a decade and it was time for them to be reunited in a safer place. With no other options, Marlene and her 8-year-old sister waded through rivers, walked through deserts, and crammed onto cattle cars to reunite with their mother in Maryland.

As an undocumented juvenile facing challenges in a new home, Marlene sought the help of our McCarrick Family Center. With the help of our immigration legal services and a team of pro bono lawyers, Marlene was granted Special Immigrant Juvenile (SIJ) status which will allow Marlene to apply for permanent residency in the United States. Deacon Jim Shanahan was one of those pro bono attorneys working on her case. “A story like Marlene’s is exactly why SIJ status exists and is so important. We have kids fleeing on foot to escape death and this is the way to help them.”

When Marlene heard the judge’s ruling, she started to cry. She knew then her American dream to become a doctor could happen.

To prepare for her future career in medicine, Marlene volunteers at the medical clinic and dental clinic in the McCarrick Family Center. “We are like a family here; we all help each other. Catholic Charities has opened so many doors for me, and I can’t see my life without them.”

PROJECT CONNECT

Every day, men, women, and families from our neighborhoods, a shelter down the road, a sidewalk on our streets, or countries thousands of miles away come to our doors. Or we meet them out in the community where they are. All looking for the same thing: compassionate and expert guidance that makes their lives better.

From pro bono legal representation, medical and dental care for the uninsured, mental health counseling and emergency response for those in crisis, to pregnancy care for women, and intense counseling and support for families in dire situations, we provide specialized care for the most vulnerable among us. Our staff combines years of experience and training with a compassionate touch in their work with those they serve. We believe poverty should not be a barrier to receiving high-quality care.

Our Behavioral Health Services helped more than 1,000 individuals dealing with mental illness and received their second 5-star rating from the DC Department of Behavioral Health.

Our Legal Network and Immigration Legal Services teams provided more than 5,800 people with civil or immigration legal advice and / or representation last year.

We added extended evening hours at our dental clinics and were able to provide an additional 1,190 visits for patients.

No one should face their struggles alone. Our Family, Parish, and Community Outreach Department creates a powerful team of volunteers, parish ministries, and local organizations working together to bring about transformational change. Our family centers serve as a lifeline for families in crisis, connecting families with immediate help and long-term guidance. We partner with parishes to create their own ministries to address the needs of their community and connect parishes to local resources. We also have social workers supporting parishes as people turn to the church in need. And the fuel that drives our work is the ever-growing volunteer force of individuals, schools, groups, and businesses who provide invaluable talent and time to us each year. By leveraging this network of volunteers, staff, and clients, we are able to say “yes” to those who need our help.

Together our family centers and Parish Partners program connected 25,095 individuals with valuable resources: emergency financial assistance, financial planning courses, clothes and food, employment training, and referrals to additional local resources.

Did you know we partnered with Prince George’s County to launch the pilot Back on Track program, an initiative that uses volunteering, education, and job skills training to reduce recidivism and incarceration of first-time offenders?

Creating Change that Lasts

LaVonda was tired. Tired of losing jobs. Tired of missing her kids. Tired of the pain her addiction was causing. After years of battling drug abuse, LaVonda was ready to regain control of her life. So nearly 10 years ago, she decided to get clean and heal the wounds her addiction had caused. Thankfully, she found our Tenants Empowerment Network.

The Tenants Empowerment Network, one of our supportive housing programs for homeless families, provided the resources and support LaVonda needed to start re-building her life. Her case manager provided one-on-one guidance for finding a safe, permanent place to live and stable employment. Counseling sessions helped her stay on the path of sobriety. The loving environment was a safe haven for her daughter. But most importantly for LaVonda, the staff at TEN gave her the strength she needed to pursue her goals. "Catholic Charities and especially my case manager at TEN showed me that I could do it, that I was strong enough."

The TEN program helped LaVonda take the next step to independence by moving into permanent affordable housing. Now, almost a decade later, LaVonda is a testament to how people can change — and fully rebuild their lives in recovery. Working two jobs she's saved enough money to move with her daughters into their own market-rent apartment, and in a few months LaVonda will celebrate 10 years of sobriety.

"Now I want to give back to others who are struggling. I love helping people and I want to show them that they are capable, just like me."

Developmental Disabilities

THE KENNEDY SCHOOL INCLUDING

DAY PROGRAMS FOR ADULTS AND CHILDREN

SUPPORTED EMPLOYMENT

CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER

DEDICATED SERVICE COORDINATION FOR YOUNG CHILDREN AND THEIR FAMILIES

For well over 50 years, our Developmental Disabilities programs have been supporting people with disabilities and their families, providing care and opportunity to grow. Our Early Childhood Education center provides children with the essential building blocks for future growth, development, and progress. Students at our K-12 Kennedy School learn life, vocational, and educational skills and in their high school years can participate in intensive internship programs. Supported employment leverages established business partnerships to connect adults with disabilities to employment opportunities matching their skill set and find dignity and value in work. From birth through adulthood, our Developmental Disabilities programs actively support the full inclusion and participation of those with disabilities in the community.

In addition to their studies, 20 students at the Kennedy School are developing workforce skills through internships at local businesses and institutions such as YES! Organic Market, the Department of Interior, and the Washington Center for Aging.

Did you know our Kennedy School educates children and adolescents ages 5-22 with intellectual disabilities in a specialized and inclusive learning environment?

The Campaign for Catholic Charities

Three years ago, we embarked on the Campaign for Catholic Charities to raise unprecedented funds to strengthen our work, accelerate our ability to meet the pressing needs in geographically isolated areas, and continue to light a path of hope for the most vulnerable among us. Thanks to the generosity of numerous donors, we exceeded our goal of $75,000,000 to invest in our future.

Investment Impact

Our two dental clinics in Maryland and DC increased appointments by 12% for low-income, uninsured, and underinsured clients meeting a growing need for high-quality, affordable care.

The multi-services Susan D. Mona Center, set to open in 2017, expands outreach to Prince George's County and will feature a primary health clinic, dental clinic, and legal services, among other comprehensive programs, to serve an estimated 3,000 new persons in need.

St. Maria's Meals, a food truck serving free dinner and breakfast, expanded to 3 locations identified as under-served regions and served more than 20,000 meals this year.

Message from the Chairman of the Board of Directors and Co-Chair of the Campaign for Catholic Charities

I am committed to the good work of Catholic Charities. I believe in the mission and support the programs in any way I can, because it is an organization that truly is like no other in our region. While the comprehensive services are often delivered to shelters, food pantries, and immigration efforts, real success is discovered when meeting the needs of every individual who comes our way; much like Jesus does for each of us. We are proud that more than 127,000 individuals were touched by our services this year.

It was a true honor and blessing to serve as the Co-Chair of our very successful Capital Campaign that raised over $76 million. This success strengthened our ability to expand outreach into under-served regions, invest in the development of innovative programs that empower those we help, and to sustain our endeavor for future years to come. We are committed to serving our diverse community with unparalleled compassion and expertise.

Catholic Charities is now in the strongest position in our history to protect, care for, and lift up the most vulnerable among us. We are deeply grateful and touched by the unwavering commitment of so many who contributed toward this campaign. Your donations are already making a transformational impact in Washington, DC and the five surrounding Maryland counties. Because of your generosity the lives of thousands of people who come our way each and every day are changed — thank you for your support!

I am so blessed to have now been the President and CEO of Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Washington for five years. In that time, I have lost track of how many families I've met whose lives have been changed forever thanks to Catholic Charities' staff and volunteers.

One of the most surprising lessons I've learned since joining Catholic Charities: when you are homeless, sick, broke, or simply struggling with depression, it is so hard to know where you should turn first. It seems obvious to outsiders, but poverty is simply overwhelming. It wears on the spirit, it eats at a person's motivation, and it clouds their thinking. All of which makes it very hard to remove yourself from a toxic environment.

In talking with our social workers, I constantly hear that being a good listener and being able to take time with each family is the key to starting fresh. Think about the times in your own life when you have struggled or felt uncertain. I'd be willing to bet that in those moments, you had someone you trusted that gave you valuable non-judgmental perspective and guidance.

That's what we do at Catholic Charities. That's what it means to provide "A Brighter Path." Yes, our staff are experts providing help in a wide range of fields: immigration law, psychology, crisis counseling, hunger, medical care, intellectual disabilities, education, and more. Our expertise was recognized by the Council on Accreditation, which rated us highly after an intense evaluation of our programs.

I know our work comes down to relationships — people of good faith serving and seeing Christ in each person. I know you, as a supporter of Catholic Charities, understand the vital role of Catholic Charities here in Washington, DC and Prince George's, Montgomery, Charles, Calvert, and St. Mary's counties.

Always remember my deepest thanks and prayers are with you and your family for including Catholic Charities in your life.

Msgr. John Enzler, President and CEO
